

Next Meeting: Monday 18 January

Doors open at 6:30 -- Meeting starts at 7:00

January's program is all about books, DVD's and periodicals that you find helpful, inspiring or a good technical resource. Bring a your favorite book or a DVD that you have found useful or a recent issue of a magazine and share with the group why you like it and if you feel it would be a good addition to the Guild library.

January Refreshments will be provided by Karin Lauderback and Linda Gardner.

The Retreat Committee will bring some information about locations and dates to the January meeting. They are checking out Brown County State Park, Spring Mill and McCormick's Creek State Parks, Bradford Woods and Rawhide Ranch in Nashville, IN. If you have other suggestions, please bring them to the meeting or email Sandy Kovener at skovener@c3bb.com.

Ply Magazine is offering a 20% discount on subscriptions for guilds and guild members only during January. The Guild will be subscribing to PLY magazine and the code will be available at the January meeting if you want to subscribe for your own copy. Use code guild2016 to subscribe on their website.

If you signed up for the Tapestry Weaving workshop in April, please bring your payment of $60.00 to the January Meeting.

As always, check you email in case of bad weather in January and February. We will send out an email if the weather looks threatening.

We need a volunteer or volunteers for refreshments in February.

Announcements

Sue Meissner is starting a sheep breeds study group. We will examine down, fine, medium, long wool breeds. How to prepare the fiber for spinning. Appropriate spinning techniques. Appropriate end uses for the type of wool. Breed characteristics. Sourcing breed fleeces. How to choose fleeces.

Let Sue know if you are interested in joining this group. She will bring fibers to the January Guild meeting for those interested. We will set up time and place to meet as a group.

We could use this study as a display for the next guild show.

Recommended textbook (optional) : Fleece and Fiber Sourcebook by Deb Robson

Contact
Spins4fun@yahoo.com