

Bloomington Spinners and Weavers Guild
August 2012 Pre-Season Newsletter

First Meeting for the new year: Monday 17 Sept 2012

I'll be sending newsletters as usual, but we thought it might be good to send out a preview to get everyone's calendars prepared.

Meetings:

As usual, the third Monday of each month, 7-9 pm.
(except December, no meeting in December)

Program Outlook:

September:

A "Meet and Greet" pitch-in meal. Bring something to share. (and sign up for the rest of the year)
"Show and Tell" from the summer.
Talk about the current "Fiber Exchange".
Kathleen will be organizing a new "Challenge" event.

October:

Robin Edmundson will lead a "Hands On Color Theory" program. Members will be asked to bring yarn, and Robin will be using paint chips and yarn to show us more about color theory.
Robin will also distribute the signs for the Fiber Art Show at this meeting.

December:

(no meeting in December)

May

Auction.

Meeting Programs In the Planning Stages:

Fair Isle Knitting
Warping Techniques Demonstration
A "Fashion Show" using recycled materials in knitting and weaving.
A "Field Trip" to see the Indigo operation run by Rowland Rickett.
Organizing both a "Fiber Exchange" and a "Challenge".

Workshop Possibilities:

Beading Knitting with Robert Stanton
Fair Isle Knitting with Kate Larson
Spinning with Patsy Zawistoski

As always, feel free to email or call with any information.
